DEAR FIVE AND FIFTY

We are happy and much alive
This dear old class of fifty-five;
And you'll always live,
Dear Five and Fifty!

We are carefree--we've learned the art
Of being very young at heart--
This you do impart,
Dear Five and Fifty!

We dream about the future
And our plans begin to shape,
As one by one we make them--
Each of our twenty-eight--

Now years may come and years may go,
But this one thing we'll always know--
You'll live evermore,
Dear Five and Fifty!

By
Billy Davis
Louise Carroll
Rodney Pittman

OLD MEMORIES

How can I sing so light-hearted and free,
When my classmates no more will I see.

Dances and parties and merry memories I leave,
To my dear classmates so fortunate and gay.
Since to my heart these memories will cleave,
Will remain as doleful tears for only today.

How can I sing so light-hearted and free,
When my classmates no more will I see.

Classes and ball games and banquets and plays,
As part of these we must now say good-bye.
Places of business and services hold sway,
We make the change, but unwillingly, Micro Hi!
